By all accounts the Jamboree last week was an outstanding success. Thanks to all the talent who gave so much to the show. Thanks for keeping us on time; as a result we had a well-paced show with lots of variety, which was the secret to success.

You need to know that my Mom was a singer, and her special favorite was "My Old Kentucky Home" Why? Because she grew up in the Bluegrass!. I know that she would have loved Ms. Price's new Kentucky song as performed by Derby City. She would have been surprised and delighted to have known that her son would participate in the awarding of a Kentucky Colonel as well. It was a special moment for the audience as well as Ms Price. Thanks so much, Pam, for arranging that!

Thanks for a great job, chorus and Allen.

The Jamboree motto is THANKS TO ALL OF US IT WORKS!—and that was never more true. Thanks to great performances, a great staff and crew, and our wonderful audience, there will be funds again next year to help advance barbershopping worldwide. That is what it's all about.
